Germany's Great Post-War is the third of a series of articles on the open-shop war of ode. Others will follow daily.

The survey of the eventful '80's is necessary clearly to unates conditions which led up to the printers' strike of beginning of the forty-year war of Los Angeles for the up, some of the underlying facts of which have been dism the two preceding articles of the present series in The Leader Often Risked His Political Position

BERLIN, Oct. 3. (Thursday) (F)—
Foreign Minister Gustav Stressmann died suddenly early today.

In the chaotic conditions that gripped Germany for several years after the World War, Gustav Stresemann rose up as an antidote like oil on troubled waters.

Dr. Stresemann suffered a stroke of paralysis shortly after 10 o'clock last night, but apparently gained strength afterward and his physicians hoped he would live. The heart attack before dawn, however, was too much for his frail physique.

Dr. Stresemann was one of the foremost statesmen of post-war Europe and with Aristide Briand, French Premier and Foreign Minister, generally was considered one of the most active of the world's peace workers. He was president of the German Feople's party, a member of the Reichstag, a former Chancellor of the German republic and the mpst widely known member of the Present Cabinet, headed by Chancellor Mueller.

It was as if Stresemann stood by while others tried this policy and that without producing anything like a semblance of order and then stepped in to thrust upon the country his own ideas and schemes. And usually he emerged successful. State Group to Comptroller of Currency in Speech Launches National System Branch Plan not "artificial treatment"-make OLD GOLD ... a better and a smoother cigarette

OLD GOLD brought about a great change in smoking habits. It gave smokers a new freedom of enjoyment . . . without any forbidden limits and without the need for self-denial.

The man who used to say "I can't smoke until after lunch ... my throat is sensitive in the morning" now finds that he can "light up" whenever he pleases. For his morning OLD GOLD has no more throat-scratch than his breakfast omelet.

Likewise all those who have to guard their throats . . .

salesmen, singers, actors, public-speakers and the like ... no longer have to stint their smokes, for OLD GOLD is as free of throat irritants as a glass of spring water.

Better tobaccos did it . . . naturally good tobaccos . . . extra-prime leaf made irritation-free by the violet rays of sunshine . . . not by "artificial treatment."

If you like food that is naturally good, instead of food made good by "artificial treatment" you're sure to prefer OLD GOLD'S natural tobacco smoothness. Try a package, and get a vote of thanks from both your throat and taste.

The "Repose" is built according to the most advanced and scientific principles, and perfected only after thorough research. Note the 100% linters filling—the careful assembling of the springs—the

HOW do you judge clothes? To most men one garment is as good as another providing prices are the same. With a price in mind they buy without thought of make, cloth or maker. But there If Every Man Knew-How Carefully FOREMAN & CLARK Clothes Are Made We Would Have All the Clothing Business is a difference in clothes that price does not always determine. Foreman & Clark prove it. No matter how much you pay you cannot buy better made clothes than Foreman & Clark sell for $35. There's "dynamite" for competition in the significance of that sentence!

Here are a few facts worth remembering: Foreman & Clark make the clothes they sell—therefore know what goes into them and how they are made. Five giant day-light factories are owned outright by Foreman & Clark. They operate under personal supervision of and manu-facture exclusively for Foreman & Clark.

Every yard of woolens is tested for weight, weave, wear and color-fastness before it ever touches a cutter's shears. The same tests by the same instruments and acids used at the U.S. Bureau of Standards.

All woolens are London shrunk—the most costly process but worth it!

Participating Ownership in Common Stocks of 28 Companies ates Issued by THE EQUITABLE TRUST COMPANY OF NEW YORK, Trustee if Countersigned by AMERICAN DEPOSITOR CORPORATION, Depositor

Each CORPORATE TRUST SHARE represents a 1/2000th par-ticipating, non-voting ownership in a stock unit consisting, as of June 6, .929, of 4 shares of common stock of each of the 28 companies shown in the tables set forth below, deposited under a Trust Agreement dated as of January 1, 1929, with The Equit-able Trust Company of New York, Trustee.

A stock unit, as existing from time to time, and a Reserve Fund in cash for stabilizing semi-annual distributions is deposited with the Trustee to be held for holders of each 2,000 CORPORATE TRUST SHARES.

Will the President Make Washington Dry?

A personal test by President Hoover of the enforceability of the Prohibition law is what some keen observers see in his announced determination to make the nation's Capital a model dry city for the rest of the country. "If prohibition is enforceable in any of our urban communities, the city of Washington should furnish the proof," declares the New York Herald-Tribune. and concludes its editorial with this sentence: "It will be an exceedingly interesting laboratory experiment since, if it is demonstrated that an unpopular law can not be enforced in a community that lacks the franchise and even by Mr. Hoover, then the case for enforcement in other cities falls as flat as a pancake." And, on the other hand, as the Atlanta Constitution remarks, If the President succeeds in the District of Columbia, then general enforcement will be made easier throughout the country."

Public opinion everywhere on this experiment is reflected in "The Digest" this week. Read the leading article and these striking news-features:

Model 199-60C

What Radio is Selling Half as Fast?

WHAT radio can get half the number, or reach half the distance through the air and bring in the stations that Model 60 will? What radio is half as selective as Model 60 . . . that can eliminate other stations as sharply within even 3 or 4 points on the dial as this new 3 Screen-Grid tube set will between two? What radio has half the amplifying power to build up weak stations to such clarity that you can understand them perfectly anywhere in the room, let alone all over the house and out in the as Model 60 does? What radio duce without distortion half the low notes and high notes with such realism as Model 60 renders the whole scale? Try and find-just one!

Ordinary standards of power, tone, selectivity and distance cannot be applied to the new Atwater Kent. It compels so complete a revolution in all previous ideals of radio performance that you can only comprehend its amazing results through personal experience. That is what has made it the envy of the industry . . . and to own this new Screen-Grid radio, will make you the envy of all your friends.

Case of Mrs. Sterling in Rolbery of Bank Under Consideration by Court

The fate of Mrs. Marie Sterling. 26 years of age, who is charged with robbery in connection with the hold-up, July 3, last, of the Bank of Italy branch at West Adams street and Orange Drive, yesterday was taken under submission to next Tuesday by Superior Judge Hardy, who heard the case without a Jury.

Mrs. Sterling is asserted to have driven the automobile used by the two male bandits who held up the bank and escaped with $1400.

Taking the witness stand at the request of her attorney, Deputy Public Defender Hill. Mrs. Sterling testified she had no knowledge of the robbery. She declared she had taken her brother-la-law. Le Roy Coffman, and a man named Nelson, to the vicinity of the bank under the belief that they were seeking employment.

Mrs. Sterling stated her suspicions were aroused when the men returned and ordered her to "get us found and an automobile to give her $400 before making a hurried departure from her home. Coffman and Nelson have not been apprehended.

Contractors Not Registered Under New Law Will Have Future Bids Thrown Aside !

Building contractors operating in California who submit bids for con-ruction work may be wondering soon why their bids are rejected in wor of other contractors. The explanation will be simple, according James F. Collins, State director of the department of professional devocational standards and registrar of contractors under the new law should prevail in every county in the State and, if brought about, will hasten the completion of our work of registering the more than 60,000 contractors of California who come under the law."

"Penalties for failure to procure a license, by applying to the registrar, Room 220, State Capitol, Sacramento, and paying the $5 license fee, give the new law a fine set of teeth, for fines as high as $500 and imprisonment in county jails for as long as six months are provided. "But in addition to that, this department is seeing to it that contractors who fail to apply for their license get little consideration when matters of competetive bidding arise. I do not deem it fair to the contractor who obeys the law for another who ignores it to be given consideration when contracts are let on a competitive basis.

There are almost 40,000 such contractors in Southern California who have not as yet applied for licenses. Mr. Collins said. Penalties of the law will not be invoked against them until after November 1 to give them additional time to file their applications, he said. No examinations as to their fitness are required by the law, as in the case of civil engineers, architects, doctors and dentists and the procedure is a simple one of filling out a blank obtained from the registrar and of paying the $5 fee.

Veteran Los Angeles Banker Sees Day of Reckoning Ahead for Foolish Investors

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—J. A. Graves, president of the Parmers and Merchants Bank of Los Angeles, is one of the most interesting and icturesque bankers in California. He belongs to the old school. He is sank and candid, some might almost consider him too much so, opinious acked up by a world of experience, all cards on the top of the table and a very free way of telling people just what he thinks.

"Then in your opinion what will be the result?" he was asked. "There is no question but what a readjustment is in store for buyers of toolish stocks. The thing cannot go on forever. Sooner of later overcapitalized corporations will decrease capital stock and the holder of a thousand shares will receive possibly 250, which will not sell for as much per share as he paid for each of the thousand shares." Perhaps such a statement is too strong. It makes no difference to this California banker what other people think of the statements which he makes. His blunt, plain-speaking is always refreshing.

CATERPILLAR TRACTOR CO. A NEW ANALYSIS

1. THE remarkable growth of this com-pany constitutes one of the outstanding in-dustrial achievements on the Pacific Coast. Earnings have steadily increased since organ-ization at an average rate exceeding 30% per

a. Gross sales during the first 6 months of 1929 increased 44% over the same period of 1928. Total volume for this year is estimated at approximately $70,000,000. Sales for agricultural purposes now constitute less than 25% of total business.

3. The completion of new eastern plants of model efficiency, the acquisition of additional properties, and successful introduction of various new products indicate a further marked expansion of sales and earnings.

It was at the end of an otherwise dull day that the only bit of humor yet to lighten the two days of jury examination developed. This occurred when Rantages, trailed by Defense Counsel Gilbert, Ford and Geisler, walked from the court into a small adjoining prisoners' room for a conference just after Judge Fricke recessed court for the day. The court clerk believing the room empty, locked the steel door and was about to depart.

Then an uproar broke out which

Then an uproar broke out which could be heard all over the eighth floor of the Hall of Justice and when startled court attendants unclocked the door it developed that attorneys Gilbert and Pord were taking turns attempting to kick down the door while Pantages and Ceisler were assisting with loud shouts for help.

After the close of the court day yesterday, Dist.-Afty. lar sermon and spoken before the church congregation and no others. A bit of comedy was injected into the proceedings and the over-crowded courtroom tittered when Judge Hardy suggested that Attorney Hunter read the entire sermon. The court suggested that perhaps the attorney should put in the various inflections "and read the sermon with due emphasis as given by the divine doctor." Efforts to pass the task to Dr. Briegieb, seated in the witness chair, were over-ruled, and Attorney Hunter then took twenty minutes to intone the sermon. Dr. Briegieb later said that he only took about five minutes for this prelude.

DANGEROUS GROUND

The argument of Attorney Shinn was based on the statement that the court may concede the intent of Dr. Briegleb, but that this will not detract from its seriousness.

"It is not the view of the committee," argued Shinn, "or its purpose to charge a deliberate (ffort on the part of Dr. Briegleb to control the decision of the court of win the influence of the jury for any motive whatsoever. But in reading the entire transcript we find no words to explain or weaken the contempt complaint. We believe the entire sermon itself shows Dr. Briegleb in discussing case was meddlesome and treading on very dangerous ground. He gave utterances to expressions that under the law are intolerable."

ATTORNEY'S RULING

The City Attorney's opinion, written by Deputy City Attorney Kitzmilier, in part, follows:

"Under Section 80 of the City Charter the general manager of a department, who in this case is the Chief of Police, has the right to appoint, discharge, suspend or transfer emoplyees of the department other than certain specified employees. The charter does not place any limitation on the right of the general manager of a department from the civil service certified list.

"Section 80 cannot be interpreted to mean that the general manager to make of a department; for to subject the right of the general manager to make his own appointments to a confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject the right of the general manager to make his own appointments to a confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject the right of the general manager to make his own appointments to a confirmation by a board would be to nullify and destroy the object of Section 80, which clearly confers upon the general manager the right of the general manager to make his own appointments to a confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject the right of the general manager to make his own appointments to a confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject the right of the general manager to make his own appointments to a confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject the right of the general manager to make his own appointments to a confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject to confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject to confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject to confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject to confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject to confirmation by the board of the department; for to subject to confirmation by the board of the department; for the department from the city of the department from the city of the department from the city of the department from the city of

"It being clearly the intent of the whole charter that the general manager of a particular department is the head of the department and must work with the personnel and be responsible for the conduct of his department, the general manager has the sole power, subject to civil service limitations, to make appointments to fill vacancies in the department,"

Whether the commission will make further efforts to obtain some other officer than Capt. Cross for deputy chief, since it has disapproved his selection, could not be learned. Close on the heels of reports that underworld leaders had plotted the death of Dist.-Atty. Pitts and Harry D. substance of the message was that DeGarmo would be killed unleas he ceased his activity in directing the inquiry into asserted police graft.

At the same time Dist.-Atty. Fitta admitted that an attempt was made by four men in a large automobile to crowd his machine from the Arroyo Seco bridge on Pasadens avenue Tuesday night while he was driving to Pasadens to speak at a meeting of school superintendents there.

"I had noticed the car following me for some distance." the District Attorney said, "and when we reached the bridge it pulled along-side and deliberately crowded my machine to the railing. My driver stopped suddenly and thus avoided a crash which might have proved fatal to us. The lights on the other machine then were put out and it sped away in the traffic."

The District Attorney stated that reports that someone had fired on his car three times Tuesday night were erroneous.

The CLEANER CITY

The Illinois Central Railroad rambles across quite a section of Chicago's lake front. The locomotives used to shed a lot of smoke and at times would fill the heavens with soot. But now the system is electrified for its Chicago approach and the difference can be noted. The change from steam to electricity exercises a notable improvement in the numosphere of the territory adjacent to the railways. The people put up with the smudge for years because they were cashly sooted. They were too numb to fight.

DADIO RACKET

Radio has established itself in our modern life and made itself necessary not only to the sick and abut-ins, but also to most of the population. It works the finest music into the home and elevates the taste of the humblest. It relays the news and plays the game luy proxy.

But when it ceases to be selective of the best and chooses the most furious lazz, or hunts up useless twadde and turns its flood upon a defenseless society without a chance to resist, it becomes a pest.

Based on an assumption that Southern California cities can not hope to acquire water from the Colorado River during the next ten years, the steps recommended by Mayor Porter include complete utilization of all the water available from the Owens Valley region and the acquisition of water rights in and the acquisition of water rights in the Mono basin, provided an equitable price can be agreed on.

An immediate survey of the areas mentioned, new estimates concerning greater storage capacity, expansion of the present Owens River Aqueduct and other aspects of development and conservation are recommended by the Mayor.

Drawing attention to the rapid increase in the demands on our existing water system, Mayor Porter agrees with various experts and engineers that failure to provide an additional supply far in advance of completion of the projected Colorado River canal may result in serious water shortage here.

Facts from which Mayor Porter draws his conclusions on the impending shortage indicate that enlargement of the Aqueduct and the purchase of Mono basin water will give Los Angeles a maximum supply almost double that now flowing from Owens River.

His own investigation of conditions in and above Owens Valley, Mayor Porter said, leads him to believe that the owners are prepared to negotiate with city authorities for the sale of all water rights not now held by the city. He in-forms the Water and Power Commis-sioners that the Mono basin lands may e purchased by Los Angeles at a cost ess than that paid by the city for the ens Valley territory.

Full utilization of all the resources outlined in his recommendations, Mayor Porter said, will provide a supply of water adequate for the needs of a population approximately twice as large as that now existing here.

He concludes his message with a plea for immediate action in order that the people of Los Angeles may be given all the facts upon which a bond issue may be submitted to them for their ap-

THE VALUE OF COLLEGE TRAINING THE VALUE OF COLLEGE TRAINING Christian Science Monitor?

The perenntal interest in the earnings of college graduates as compared with those of nongraduates is revived again by the publishing of data relative to the salaries of the Princeton class of 1917. Large figures are involved in the report, one member earning an amount in excess of $100,000 at year, while eight earn between $25,000 and $100,000. At the other end of the line are twenty-two whose salaries are between $2000 and $3000 and all who earn less than $2000. The average salary of the entire class is $5007.

These facts are of interest in only one direction: the size of the salaries earned by college men twelve years out of an institution largely attended by sons of the rich and well-to-do. But so many conditions enter into the problem that it is a poor criterion for judging the value of a college education. The circumstances surrounding graduates.

Into the problem that it is a poor criterion for judging the value of a college education. The circumstances surrounding graduates, wealth and social position of family, and influential friends, often count much more in determining an individual's occupation and the size of his salary than native ability or acquired training.

The attempt to evaluate worth of education in monetary terms is wholly profitless. What can measure the depth and richness of life which may be opened up through the middle in the unitory of the past? The college-trained man or woman has at least had the opportunity to greatly enrich his human experience, to give to it a depth of meaning which he might have entirely missed without these advantages. And yet none of what should be the best results of college training is necessarily manifest in the salary schedule. Moreover, the effort to gauge the value of higher training merely upon the salary basis tends to exalt the material at the expense of the spiritual and moral values. Nevertheless, it cannot be gainsaid that the latter are the most important, both to the individual and to society in general. For the highest service there is no measure in terms of salary. NO "BLUE-GRAY" REUNION

NO "BLUE-GRAY" REUNION
[Richmond Times-Dispatch]

Despite the fact that the proposal bore the indorsement of thirty-one Covernors of States and of the commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, a resolution providing for a final reunion of the Blue and the Gray, to be held either next year or the year after, was tabled by delegates to the sixty-third annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Of course, this action on the part of the Union veterans was of little significance. It will bring on no national crisis. The men who followed Lee and Jackson will receive it in silence, without resentment in their hearts. The final reunion of the Blue and the Gray would have been merely a pretty gesture. It would have meant nothing in the life of the country. There is no national division now by reason of the War Between the States. Differences which brought on the fierce contest of the '60's were settled with the peace at Appomatiox. A reunion of the actors in that drama is not needed to cement the sections.

It is a little disquieting, however, to learn that some veterans of the Union Army are still averse to fraternizing with their opponents of more than sixty years ago. Their action bespeaks something which is not in keeping with the prevailing American spirit. They are out of tune with the times. They have not kept up with the march of events since the curtain was drawn down at Appomattox.

But we shall not be out of patience with

But we shall not be out of patience with these Union veterans. They are just a little old and peevish. If they wish still to harbor ugly memories of what happened in their boyhood, let them have their way about it. Jury Service

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The question of jury service being before our minds at present renews the inquiry. "Why, in drawing for jury service, should the courts confine themselves to the small busine's man, the retired merchant or farmer, the housewife, etc. Why not the active banker, merchant, manufacturer, women of wealth and leisure? These all are able to drop business and social duties to travel extensively, their time is their own? Why, if they are American citizens, should not all who are not under time-keepers have to give twenty days or three weeks to jury service?

Spring Street

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Our newspapers too frequently carry items derogatory to Spring street. So important a street as Spring street on which is located the financial center of this great city should, in its entire length, be a redit to downtown Los Angeles.

Except for four blocks, Spring street makes a poor appearance. Some properties outside these four blocks have recently been improved and some structures have been demolished. We maintain that there is a sumicient demand for the right kind of business on Spring street. This business need not be drawn from any other downtown street. It is not the program of this association to conduct an ordinary clean-up crusade on Spring street, but we can get together as property owners and business men and decide upon a course of procedure.

A movie mamma in Hollywood told us that she herself had suffered from a suppressed childhood and a violently religious father, so that her longing to become an actress was ruthlessly squelched. When, therefore, her own child was on the way, she prayed incessantly that she might be an actress.

Just a year or two ago, a reluctant young mother in this town wept copiously throughout the time until her girl was born. That child has the most tragic eyes of anyone I ever knew. Even her rare smiles are heartbreaking.

A maternity nurse tells me of a case in which the expectant mother was working in the garden and an ivy vine fell upon her, startling her alarmingly. The child, she vows, has a perfect pattern of an ivy leaf on her left cheek to this day.

BEAUTY JUDGES IN FOR TASK FIGHT MADE Mother and Daughter Enter Contest

Mother, may I so in the show?
I taink so, too: but whatever you do.
Den't say that you're my daughter!

Sounds unlikely, doesn't it, that any mother would reply thus to the apple of her eye? But then, you see, what the young lady meant when she asked about going in the show, was the first annual National Beauty Show at the Ambassador Auditorium from next Saturday to the 12th inst. The mother's reason for dispensing such a caution is that she herself wants to enter the competition and, of course, it wouldn't do be the highest know that she is the mother in of a grown girl.

The repartet, in effect, took place yeterday when Olive Perkins requested the maternal permission to a file her entry, and Mrs. Evelyn Perkin, her mother, countered with her in admonition. Then, when Olive agreed to keep her identity secret, in order to give mother a sporting chance at the laurels to be won, they went arm in arm to headquarters and filed their entries.

Opera Association Presents Double Bill

Luca Favored as Star of "Gianni Schicchi"

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT Nomination of Tito Schipa as a popular hero of the opera took place last evening. Donisetti's "L'Elisir d'Amore" served as the work to introduce his invariably pleasing artistry. And a near-capacity audience acclaimed him after each curtain and following in the Business are accepted. and following "Una Purtiva lagri-ma," the famed tenor aria, for which one must unfortunately wait until the last few minutes.

The Los Angeles Grand Opera As-sociation presented as a double bill two of the lightest lyrical attrac-tions of the repertoire. "Gianni Schiech" in modern mood, of Puc-cini composition, preceded Donizet-ti's quaintly old-fashioned affair of recitatives and yound pyrotechnics.

hopeful heirs of a weathy Figuratine. Most of the work is in the buffo mode, though there is incidentally a solo or two in Puccini's best melodious manner.

De Luca with his comedy was casily the star. His insistence on Gianni Schicchi, which role he himself plays, being left everything in the falsified will being a scene of distinct mirthfulness.

Aside from de Luca, Miss Morgana and Gennaro Barra had leading singing roles, and Gaetano Merola conducted, keeping the interpretation well in hand throughout, and emphasizing the more attractive musical moments.

The two operas given last evening were more in the nature of novelties than the majority presented during the engagement. "Glanni Schicchi" was once heard during an earlier season of the association, and "L'Elisir d'Amore" was last given here by the Chicago Civic Opera.

The next production, "Paust," will be given Friday evening with Elizabeth Rethberg and Glacomo Lauri-Volpi in the cast.

Ancient Drama Proves Popular

"After Dark," which starts at the Biltmore Theater Monday, enjoyed a run of nearly fifty weeks in Hoboken. While this was doubtless due to the hegira of New Yorkers to the last outpost of Bohemia, the Detroit and Cleveland engagements were five times the ordinary run in either city. In Chicago the show ran all summer. The show is now in its fifth week at the Geary Theater, San Francisco.

"High Hat Revue," current attraction at the Pollies, provides a snappy grade of entertainment, principally because of the abundance of comedy Behind the comedy the producers have placed a versatile production. The burlesque is divided in aix episodes with numerous specialties and ensemble numbers. Foster and Semon, two eccentric comedians, offer good material, and manage to carry each individual scene to a successful climax. Miss Ryder, Beatrice Franklin and Evelyn Ramsay, endowed with attractive personalities, are a welcome sight at all times. Other principals include Hal Ford, Ruth Chemons, Mack White and George Crump. The young people on the U.C.L.A. campus who have recently built sorority and fraternity houses have "adopted" the Carthay Circle Theater for their parties and since the opening of Will Rogers the students have given the Beveriy Hills theater much of their patronage, it is said.

VENTRILOOUIST LATEST HERO

"Great Gabbo" Introduced at Criterion

Von Stroheim Acts in Novel Film of Stage Life

ames Cruze Director of Ben Hecht Yarn

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER The gift of Gabbo was bestowe ipon an audience of more or less tratified recipients last evening at the Criterion Theater. Ben Hecht's anecdote—the one about the ven-triloquist whose best friend was his dummy—supplied James Cruze, who once directed "The Covered Wagonce directed "The Covered Wagon," with an idea for a good long feature, one that would run on for hours, with interpolations of song and dance in color for variety, and an occasional return to a narrative that would finally peter out of its own accord. He forthwith signed up Erich Von Stroheim, who knew a thing or two about directing and acting himself, and Betty Compaon, a capable leading lady, and set about making a sound movie of it all. The result he called "The Great Gabbo," and it may be seen and heard, the oddest thing to be put on the audible films, at the theater on Grand near Seventh.

"The Great Gabbo" is really two pictures in one. It is almost as though one were to enter a playhouse with two stages, upon one of which a strange and absorbing drama of a man and a woman and a wooden doll worked its slow and inevitable course, while on the other, a musical revue with Maryle (Babe)

ly the close, a theatrical trick which in retrospect seems permissible but not particularly desirable. Whether also sings and dances as the appears to in the film is not, I think, especially important, the films in heart capecially important, the films being credible most of the time.

Unusually pleasing music has been written for the revue half of the picture by Paul Titsworth. Lynn Cowan, King Zany and Don McNames. "Every Now and Then." "I'm In Love With You" and a number reminiscent of an old light German air fill the air with concord of sweet sounds—or, if not so emphatically sweet, because of blurred reproduction, at least not blatantly offensive.

A deal of money evidently was spent on this revue, made partly in Multicolor. The various hues and shades seemed to me restiul and harmonious, excepting the reds. Maurice Kusell staged the dances in settings by Robert Lee, reminiscent of the best New York productions. There are too many of them.

"The Great Gabbo," despite its contrasts, is an arresting novelty. No talkie, at any rate, in all the world like this.

Fox Movietone News now doubts our ability to read. The printed titles, as they are flashed before your eyes, are simultaneously (or a little later) shouled in your ears. Believe it, as Mr. Ripley would say, or not.

TRIO TAKEN ON ROBBERY COMPLAINTS

Victims Lured by Women to Apartment Later Find Out Loss, They Say

Accused of being in company of unnamed men who were robbed while their attention was diverted. Mrs. Betty Mercer, 24 years of age, and Mrs. June Meyers, 22, of 425 South Bonnie Brae street, were arrested yesterday and booked on charges of suspicion of robbery. At the same time Archie Maxie Ayres, 30, of 307 West Ninety-fifth street, was booked on the same charge. Detective Lieutenants Maxwell and Reilly made the arrest following numerous complaints from men whose names were withheld. These latter complained that the two young women made their acquaintance at cabarets and then invited them to their apartment. The complaint added that later they found their money missing. Due to the circumstances under which they lost their cash and valuables they preferred to hide their identities. Maxwell and Reilly reported that Betty Mercer is the wife of Rex Mercer, now serving a sentence in Folsom prison for a robbery late in 1927. The detectives also asserted they found Ayres in the apartment of the young women despite the address which he gave when booked.

Moran and Mack Present Unique Brand of Comedy on Screen

Moran and Mack, usually called the Two Black Crows, have long been known to the American pub-lic. Their records have sold into the millions and radio listeners have enjoyed their "tired" humor on many occasions. Now the Para-mount Theater makes the an-nouncement that their first motion propriately titled "Why Bring That Up?" will open at that theater today.

The Two Black Crows bring their dible screen in a story which was especially written for them by Octavus Roy Cohen. The story of "Why Bring That Up?" gives Moran and Mack a fine opportunity to carry on their own distinctive line of humor and at the same time to portray the leading roles in a gripping story that is said to be based on their early experiences in the theater.

SOUND FILMS HERE BETS HIS HAND TO STAY, SHE SAYS

E. J. Delorey, former public works commissioner who was ousted last week by the City Council at the re-quest of Mayor Porter, continued on that the ousting is illegal by appearing at the meet-ing of the board yesterday morn-ing, much to the embarrassment of ing of the board yesterday morning, much to the embarrasunent of his former colleagues, who are now wondering how to get rid of him.

Mayor Porter also is pussling over the problem and yesterday asked City Attorney Werner what steps he should take to oust Delorey in fact as well as theory.

Last Monday Delorey went to the board meeting room but the board had disappeared "to avoid embarrasunent." Yesterday he sat in his accustomed seat. The roll was called. His name was omitted. cordance with the action of the Mayor and City Council in removing you from office as a commissioner of public works, I can no longer recognise you as a commissioner of public works and the accretary is instructed not to record your vote on any matter coming before this board and is further instructed to advise the heads of all bureaus and departments under the jurisdiction of the board that you are no longer to be recognized as a member of this board."

"Then I beg to be excused from further attendance at this meeting," said Delorey, and retired to his office.

He notified his former colleagues, however, that he will be in his office in the City Hall each morning, available for duty.

Now, the question arises, how shall he be run out? Placid counsel, it is understood, prevailed over a plan to give him the "rush act." Delorey's counsel, Vincent Morgan and Lewis Whitehead, announced yesterday morning a petition, affidavits and the full transcript of the Council's proceedings will be filed in Superior Court, asking that the action of the Council be overruled.

LILLIAN GISH

Lillian Clish is going to hear her own voice within a few weeks. She confessed last night, on her arrival in Hollywood to make her first talking picture, that she awaits her new venture with somewhat of a thrill as she has as yet to make a voice screen test.

"The microphone is not as nice to women as to men but I do not anticipate any difficulty," she said. "I must confess that I didn't like the talkies at first but now I feel they are here to stay."

Miss Gish arrived on the Chief from New York. She recently returned from a trip abroad to come to the United Artists studio to star in "The Swan," in which she is to play a sophisticated, dramatic role, It will mark her first appearance on the screen in two years. Her sister, Dorothy, remained in New York to appear on the stage.

SERIES OF FREAK AUTO CRASHES INJURES NINE

In a series of freak motor accidents occurring at the intersection of Forty-eighth street and Angeles Meas Drive, nine persons were injured seriously last night. The accidents, which happened in rapid succession, involved four motor cars, a police ambulance, a police patrol and two pedestrians.

The misnays occurred a few minutes after the car of Mayne R. Denman. $122 Angeles Mesa. collided with one driven by George Behn, 538 East One Hundred and Sixth street. The cars hit each offier head-on. Both drivers were knocked unconscious and two women in the back seat of Behn's car were thrown out. They are Mrs. Pauline Kaufman, 68 years of age, and Mrs. Margaret Rothman, 38.

Witnesses called the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital ambulance, which rushed to the scene with Dr. Herbert Dassy in charge. Just as it reached the scene a machine driven by Mrs. Marian Douglas turned the corner and crashed into the ambulance. Dr. Dassy was thrown out and his head struck the curbing. The ambulance was turned over and wrecked.

A moment later Andrew Wern, 1384 Hill street, Santa Monica, tho heard the crash, drove up to render aid. There were so many injured

Former Assistant District Attorneys Argue in Court Fight Against Fitts

Edgar T. Fee and Frank Ey, mer deputy district attorneys missed by Dist.-Atty. Fitts shortdismissed by Dist.-Atty. Fitts shortly after he took office, were in Superior Judge Smith's court yesterday arguing a demurrer to the answer filed to their petition for a writ of mandamus compelling county officials to pay them about $4000 each of back salary, from the time of their dismissal, last January.

$4000 each of back salary, from the time of their dismissal, last January.

Deputy County Counsel Prichard, who filed the answer in behalf of County Auditor Payne and the District Attorney, opposed the demurrer. Regardless of the decision on the highly technical legal points argued, the case will have to go to trial on its merits, as the courts have overruled demurrers to the complaint. The action on the demurrer, which probably will continue today, is a necessary legal step in the trial of the mandamus suit, however.

Dist.-Atty Fitts dismissed Ey and Fee, along with Dep. Dist.-Attys. Hart and Heinicke, on grounds of inefficiency. A hearing before the Civil Service Commission sustained the District Attorney's action and the suit to compel the payment of back salaries is in the nature of an appeal from the commission's decision. The petitioners claim that there was not adequate cause for their dismissal, and they further assert that Fitts exceeded his authority when he dismissed them.

Pernandes has been promised a $10,000 shot with Al Singer in New York providing he does not drop the duke here to Ponce. Several months ago Fernandes startled the East by kayoing Singer, a Gotham favorite, in three rounds. Singer has been crying for a rematch and it looms now if the hard-hitting islander isn't beaten here.

WALKER DOES HIS FIRST BOXING FOR HUDKINS GO

OJAI. Oct. 2.—Mickey Walker did his first boxing yesterday for his ten-round bout on the 20th inst. with Ace Hudkins at Wrigley Field in defense of his middleweight title. The champion boxed four rounds, two each with Tom Moore and Roy Moore. Neither of these Moores is related.

Walker worked true to type. He is a puncher. He gambled from the time the first bell rang until Jack Kearns, who arrived just before the workout, called a halt. The middleweight champion needs a lot of work. But he fights the same now as he will at Wrigley Field. He is a fighter, not a boxer.

The Moores, both of whom strongly resemble Hudkins in personal looks and style, were in a had way at the finish. Walker throws punches from any angle in the ring.

Kearns was pleased to learn on his arrival that Walker had weighed as low as 163 pounds following one of his long mountain hikes. This

BEARS POINT FOR GAELS

BERKELEY, Oct. 2 .- (Exclusive otwithstanding the fact that he t really afford to point for St. Mary's this Saturday, owing to more important games in the period following. Coach Clarence (Nibs) Price is putting his University of California football varsity in a peppy state of mind for the nen of Moraga.

If California should lose to the Saints, therefore, the Pennsylvania-California game on the 19th inst., would greatly suffer. As a result of thinking along this line, Price is giving his men the whole works that they may be fit to battle with the spookiness of the "Four Blue Ghosts," as Coach Slip Madigan's efficient backfield is sportishly styled. These men manifested considerable power and co-ordination last Sunday when they successfully hurdled the West Coast Army team. Having already built up a neat little offensive, particularly in the departments of the forward pass and the lateral pass, Price today concentrated his attention on the defense as he has done for the week to date, together with polishing the line power plays.

HUGHES AND ERNO TO MINGLE AT PASADENA

Tommy Hughes, who has been a hot Hollywood attraction the past month, will fight the ten-round main event against Mickey Erno, an old Pasadena favorite who is just back from two years in the East, at the Pasadena arena tonight.

This will be another "Ladles' Night" at Morrie Cohan's house. It was tried for the first time last week and was a success. Cohan announced — as will be the rule tonight—that any woman accompanied by an escort would be admitted free.

In the six-round semifinal, Royal Dutch Elliott will fight his second professional battle against Ray Ortega, a sturdy Mexican who never has been stopped to date.

In the four-round preliminaries the following will be seen: Happy Romero vs. Bert Wagner, 150 pounds; Rid Esau vs. Bolo Mision, 150 pounds; Stutts Houk vs. Morrie Eagleson, 160 pounds.

THAT NEW YORK UPSET

(IT WAS 3 to 1 we wouldn't score and 7 to 1 we couldn't win." The speaker was Mr. Art Taaffe, head of the news bureau at Oregon State, and he was referring to incidents that preceded the totally unexpected victory which the boys from Corvaills hung on the big Violet eleven of New York U. at New York last December.

Mr. Taaffe was impelled to make this observation in refuting statements that this year's Oregon State eleven stands small chance against Howard Jones's Trojans at the Coliseum Saturday.

Saturday.

Proceeding further in his story to prove how folks can be shocked sometimes Mr. Tanffe relates the incident in the hotel lobby of the Commodore after the game. Mr. Tanffe had a couple of under-the-weather warriors in his tow when he returned to the hotel.

He asked house medical service for them. The cierk recognized them as visiting football heroes and asked Tanffe the score of the game. "It was 25 to 13," Tanffe replied. "We had a hard time beating them."

"What, you beat New York U.!" screamed the cierk, and passed out like a limp rag.

Of course, Mr. Tanffe insists he is making no predictions, but he simply wants to leave the impression that it is not all over but the shouting—yet.

The Trojans may be favorites—are, in fact—but that doesn't mean a thing in Mr. Tanffe's young Scotch mind.

He is willing to wait for the battle to decide things.

ABOUT MERLE HUFFORD

M. R. TAAFFE says all the nice things said about Merle Hufford, the new Washington backfield star, are true. He is a hard-running back extremely hard to down, and is declared to be quite the finest prospect turned out of any high school in the Northwest in years.

It seems that several colleges had their eyes on young Mr. Hufford, despite the fact his home is in Eastern Oregon and that naturally he would be suspected of attending one of the Oregon Institutions.

In fact it appears that both Oregon and Oregon State had him lined up, but while they were dilly-dailying about his coming some crude Washington boys drove up one day and carted Mr. Hufford off to Seattle.

Mr. Taaffe says there was more hullabaloo over the matter than any case that has arisen in the Northwest for many moons.

NCHEC BRUINS DO LIGHT WORK FOR FRESNO STATE TILT

Although the majority of the football players of the University of California at Los Angeles have fully recovered from the effects of last Saturday's terrific grid contest with the University of Southern California in the Coliseum, light practice was again the order of the day yesterday on the Westwood tanbark. Only very light scrimmaging is being held this week at the Bruin institution, and despite the fact that Coach Bill Spaulding says he is preparing just as hard for the game with the Fresno State Teachers' College, this Saturday on the Westwood gridiron, it is evident that the Fresno State, the opponents this week-end of the California at Los Angeles team, is reported to have a fairly good team this year, despite the fact that the Loyola College Llona handed the northerners a fancy 20-to-0 beating last Saturday. The big star of the Teachers is Jim Tyack, a big fullback, who should show plenty against the battered Bruins this week. The Fresno eleven lost to Bill Spaulding's men two years ago

He hopes that the southing influence of the Southern California atmosphere will give it a chancé to heal. He will not be eligible for the Pomona tennis team.

Although there is plenty more that Nixon could show his men before they take the field Saturday to play the Caltech Engineers, he feels that the rest will do them more good.

The Pomona varsity had a fairly easy time with the Sage-chicks, but this fact in itself means very little for the Pomona freshmen are not up to average at present. The varsity ripped through the fresh line for big gains and had little difficulty in scoring four touchdowns.

Bandit Holds Up Theater Cashier

By a "Times" Staff Renry HUNTINGTON PARK, Oct. 2. (Exclusive)—At pistol's point, a bandit tonight held up the girl cashier of the California Theater on Pacific Boulevard and robbed her of $500. after which he escaped. The man was about 25 years of age and of medium build. Stopping before the box office window at 9:20 p.m., he displayed a 22-caliber automatic pistol almed at the cashier, Frieda Daniels, in a manner which concealed the weapon from theater patrons waiting behind him to buy tickets. After she had obeyed, the robber walked away 100 feet before the girl raised the alarm, calling Assistant Manager. Page. While the latter was telephoning the police, the robber turned down Rita street and disappeared. (Exclusive)—At pistol's point, a
